

Eligibility Criteria for Book Submissions

To qualify for submission, books must meet the following requirements:

1. Published Format

Your book must be available in English, with an ISBN, and may be self-published, hybrid-published, or released by a small or large press (see definitions below).

2. Publication Date

The copyright or publication date must be within 2023 or 2024, as displayed on or near the title page.

If your book lists a 2025 publication date but was physically published and available for purchase by December 31, 2024, please contact us at office@nautilusbookawards.com for clarification.

3. High-Quality Writing

Your book should demonstrate excellence in writing.

4. Relevant Message

The content of your book must align with the category selected during submission.

5. Submission Format

Please submit a completed PDF version of your book, including both front and back covers.

6. Alignment with Nautilus Values

Your book must reflect one or more of the four core values of the Nautilus Book Awards.

7. First-Time Submission

Books previously entered into the Nautilus Awards are ineligible. If special circumstances apply, please contact us for accommodation.

*Note: We do not provide individual feedback on book evaluations.
